Announcements:

President Larry thanked members for their work on the dictionary project. Members were in attendance at 3rd grade classes at Metteer and Bidwell schools. Thank-you letters were set out on the tables and photos were passed around.

Teacher, Jill Dias, introduced student of the Month from Red Bluff High School, Patrick Shoop. Jill said Patrick is well respected by his peers and teachers and sets a good example. Patrick is a student government board member who has been accepted at Stanford. He has attended the California Summer Institute for Math & Science, plays the trombone, and hopes to become an aerospace engineer, pilot, or astronaut. Patrick was presented with a plaque, letter from Bob Douglas, and a check from the Club for $50.

Mary Martin was introduced as a new Red Bluff Rotary member.

She has been a Rotarian in the past and is the Superintendent of Lassen Volcanic National Park. Beth Glenn received a Service Above Self pin from President Larry for bringing Mary into the club.

Dale Stroud announced that he was circulating a sign up sheet for the 4-H Club judging at Maywood School on March 4th. Please sign up because it encourages public speaking skills for our future leaders.

The Board meets tomorrow and they will be choosing the next Rotary Star. At the end of the year a Rotarian of the Year will be chosen from the 12 Rotary Stars.

Next week, Mike Metherd will preside, as President Larry will be working out-of-town. Bill Cornelius will be the MC for the Past Presidents Luncheon.

Randy Gottlieb presented a gratitude and recognition award to Ryan Sale for his outstanding oversight of pancake cooking at the Super Bowl Pancake Breakfast.

Cindy Brown presented a Ducky Derby check for $1,848 to President Larry.

John Gumm and Peter Harvey recognized Catherine Gutierrez for her work on the Cone Kimball Plaza project and announced the donation of $5,000 from Pulte Homes. In addition to the upcoming golf tournament fund-raiser that will be held at Wilcox, members were mailed individual letters for donations.

Kathy Patterson from the Sunrise Rotary Club announced that they had applied to WalMart and received a $1,000 donation for the Cone Kimball Plaza that was being matched by their Club. She also announced their Crab Feed fundraiser at the Red Bluff Community Center on February 25th. The cost is $25 for individuals or $45 for couples.

Recognitions:

Randy Gottlieb - $65 for presenting Ryan Sale with his pancake award.

Program Notes:

Dan King introduced the California Heat, Sweet Adelines International. The local chapter was officially started in October of 2004 and 24 members are involved. Club members and Valentine guests enjoyed the music immensely.

Drawing:

Won by Una Jordan, who donated her winnings to the Red Bluff High School Music Program.

RED BLUFF ROTARY PROGRAMS FEBRUARY 2006

February 28: FOCUS ON COMMUNITY: Val Lucero has arranged a program that will bring Tehama County's new semi-annual Community Report Card for an up-front and personal presentation for Rotary members. Mary Jacobson, the county's Health Partnership coordinator, will give us the true picture of Tehama's health from a perspective of multiple indicators.
