

LASSEN LAVA

OFFICIAL PUBLICATION OF THE
ROTARY CLUB OF RED BLUFF

CHARTERED MAY 13, 1924

"He Profits Most Who Serves Best"

ROTARY CLUB NO 1768

"Service Above Self"

August 11, 2009

Bob Douglas, President

Vol. 88, No. 6

Editorial Team: Dick Beddoe, Will Murphy, Tim Potanovic, & Greg Stevens

www.redbluffrotary.org

Program Personnel:

Greeter: Bill Patidar
Invocation: Dan King
Introductions: Bev Ross
Tickets: Joe Dominick
Raffle: Michelle Blunkall

Visiting Rotarians:

Gary Lewis, Redding Rotarian and President of Shasta College

Guests of Rotarians:

Todd Smith, St. Elizabeth Hospital, and Amy Cavalleri, Mercy Foundation North, guests of Sister Pat Manoli

Member Birthdays:

Mike Metherd, August 12
Ross Miller, August 14

Partner Birthdays:

Laura Dolling, August 14
Marcie Moisey, August 11

Wedding Anniversaries:

Tod & Laura Dolling, August 17
Pete & Hanna Sue Harvey, August 11

Announcements:

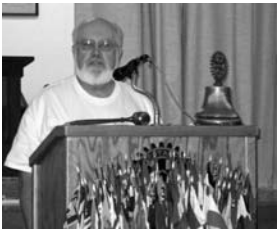

⌘ Gary Lewis spoke about the ribbon cutting ceremony for the new Shasta College Tehama Campus to take place on August 22nd and doing so invited Red Bluff Rotarians to join in recognition of the educational milestone. Mr. Lewis also introduced Hal Lucas, member of the Shasta College Board of Trustees.

⌘ Also an announcement was made that Una Jordan is recovering at home after receiving a pacemaker. Reportedly, Una said that her heart "hasn't worked this well in a long time."

Two Minute Drill:

Carl Havener ~ long-time Rotarian talked about starting out at a young age as a child and about his long career in Mental Health.

Past President, JoAnn Perkins, talked about her career as an airline stewardess, ski area owner, real estate agent, and travel coordinator.

Next Week's Two Minute Drill:

Joe Dominick & Roy Gould

Recognitions:

Bob Douglas was recognized by Dennis Garton for excessive print media exposure, $50. Mark Griffith, Beth Glenn, $50 & $25, respectively for photographs in newspaper proudly displaying bricks purchased from Bill Cornelius. John Growney for his picture with Rodeo legend Lane Frost in Pro-Rodeo Magazine, $50.

Program:

Amy Travis, Public Health educator for Tehama County Health Services Agency was introduced by Val Lucero. Amy spoke about the H1N1 virus and presented a PowerPoint on emergency preparedness.

Drawing: Linda Bullock, who bought 5 tickets!

This Week's Editor: Tim Potanovic

Photo by: John Stover

Absentees: → → → → → 11
Ash, Brown, Dolling, Koontz, R.Miller, Rubright, Salas, Soder, Townsend, Vine, Wheeler

Upcoming Programs:

8/18 – James DenBoer, a Published Poet Author
8/25 – Bud Tysinger, Update on Zambia Eye Clinic
9/1 – Team Meeting
9/8 – United Way
9/15 – Masons – Gerald Sanders
9/22 – TBA
9/29 – Nomlaki Indians & Rolling Hills Casino